

St. Mary's Medical Center Taps Dr. Michael Black to Develop Pediatric Heart Program

September 10, 2011

St. Mary's Medical Center taps Dr. Michael Black to develop pediatric heart program

By JANE FETTERLY

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY NEWS

Posted: 6:00 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, 2011

Dr. Michael Black has joined the staff of St. Mary's Medical Center to help develop a new pediatric heart program.

"He brings innovative minimally invasive techniques to St. Mary's new pediatric open heart surgery program," said David Carbone, the hospital's chief executive officer. Previously, children had to go to either Miami or Orlando for that specialized care.

Black had been chief of cardiac surgery and the adult congenital heart program at California Pacific Medical Center in San Francisco.